Victor's father who was working as a laborer, broke his leg when he fell from a roof where he was working and from then on he could not find any suitable job, moreover he being uneducated the doors for descent employment has been shut. And the ounce of taking care of the family fell on his wife, and she being illiterate ,she had to settle for domestic work as a maid.

As such she is not able to bring home enough food to feed her children, sometimes she brings the left over meals from the houses she works , that is the food her children and her husband had to share. Life became very critical to them, they had to forgo their rented house and settle for a single room house.

Victor is unable to attend classes regularly, most of the time he has to run errands for his mother employers which fetches him a bowl of rice. Her mother who attends our church wants her son to go to school and study and become a good Christian and serve the nation and Lord. She is begging to enroll him under Touch A Life program by which she feels her son will have better future and escape from being bonded laborer.
