Pawn parents are daily wage workers, his father who had borrowed loan from a money lender could not repay in time, so he his committed to work for the money lender till such time his debts are cleared therefore he can't feed his family. It is his mother who has to laborer from dawn to dusk for just over one $ plus some grains with which to feed three kids.

Pawn because he is too young he is not able to go to work and he is attending pre-school run by government where they provide mid-day meal. His mother suffered illhealth and her kids had to starve . She was admitted to a Government run hospital , even there the treatment was not up to the standard. Nevertheless she found a savior. While she lay in bed unable to get the best treatment, one nurse who was a chrstian befriended her and provided some help which meant a lot to her, gradually this nurse led her to the Lord Jesus, Pawn's mother completely trusted in the Lord, never before she heard the name of Lord Jesus, now she lay in bed found Christ as her personal savior was so happy because of inner peace with her creator, she grew in confidence, reading the Bible and trusting in the Lord for her healing. By the mercy of God she was healed and was discharged from the hospital.

She joined a nearest church and began to grow in the Lord inspite of her suffering and her husband's bondage to the money lender. She led her kids to our Sunday school where Latha found the Lord Jesus to be her savior.Pawn has joined our Sunday school where he is learning about Jesus and is growing like an healty child. He is very happy to join. Touch A Life program.
