Tejaswini's mother was product of child labor, she did not get to go to school, because of poverty she had to work in the agricultural farm right from the age of 4. And she got married at the age of 13 to a 33 years old man. And by the age of 14 she concieved Tejaswini and her husband who was a drunkard did not take care of her and his daughter well, he continued to live with other women.

So Tejaswini's mother labored very hard to take care of her daughter and her son by working all kinds of menial jobs and at the same time enduring untold abuse from her employers, she could not defend herself from her exploiters, so she led a life of sorrow and her children future would bother her all the time.

Our pastor had organized Children Bible School ie VBS, inviting all the kids in the locality, Tejaswini also attended VBS for ten days, she enjoyed all the Bible stories, action songs and the refreshments served. On the last day all the kids were told to bring their parents, Tejaswini brought her mom, who Heard the góspel on that day plus was happy that her daughter for the first time in her life was smiling along with other kids. Then she wanted to know the secret of VBS, the pastor shared the góspel of Jesus Christ, her mom Heard about the love of Christ as to how He came down to this earth and died for our sins, she received Jesus as her personal savior, from then on she did not leave the church, no matter what happened to her.
