Her father was drunkard and would abuse his wife daily, his only concern was, to somehow snatch money from his wife to fetch him some drink , and he would demand her wages. Plus he was not happy at his wife conceiving only daughters and no sons, which drove him into depression, to overcome his depression he took to drinking. One fine morning , he took his wife to some unknown town and placed her into the custody of a landlord for a sum of few hundred $, he the landlord in turn handed her to a brothel house.

He returned home to get rid of his daughter by forcing her to work in a farm which would fetch her few cents, the same would buy her dad a few pegs for the night , any one who raise objections to him would receive severe beatings.

One Sunday afternoon, Kaveri all alone by herself was walking down the lane to her work place, when she heard a group of kids sings and rejoicing in a small room, she just barged in and sat among the kids to feel the taste of the songs, later on when the pastor who is being sponsored by Final Frontiers noticed this kid, took her aside and spoke to her gently , then she began to tell her side of the story , of how she missed her mom and how cruel her dad is. This prompted the pastor to rescue this girl from being abused.

From then on she is attending Sunday school regularly and are waiting to enroll into the TAL program.
