Please write a story about how the child became orphaned or destitute or abandoned. (Make it as detailed as possible and use additional paper if necessary.)

Laxmi's mother was sold to a middle man by her Temple prostitute mother, who took her and introduced her to the temple where she ended up as a Temple Prostitute and she was there only for a brief period of five years, by then all her strength was sapped by evil men, who had no moral sense other than gratification through this Little girl.

After her service was no longer wanted, she was forced out of the temple and led a life of prostitute to such an extent that she had no penny in her hand to feed her kids or pay for her medical check up, as such she could not earn her living by way of prostitution because she could no longer attract any customers.

She was begging door to door that's the time one of our Pastor who is being funded by Final Frontiers, made her sit in his house and shared the gospel with her, this changed her mind, because never in her life did she come across such a loving and kind hearted man, for all she knew was that men were evil. But now she completely dumb found, at the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, she knelt down and received Jesus into her heart and following week she attended church service along with her kids.

Later on she found a government welfare house, where she is now residing and working as a farm laborer for her survival but decided that she will never again go to the temple or entertain any customers. She is very happy that her daughter will not have to go through hardship like her and that Jesus Christ will take care of her through TAL.
