His mother is a single parent, her husband deserted her after four years of marriage, she had no way to go, her parents did not welcome her nor did they provide any resource for her sustenance. One business contractor encouraged her to learn the skills of Basket waiving and began to work for the contractor, she would take the raw materials and make baskets and sell them back to him. During off-season she worked as head loader in a small go-down. Since her wages was less than a $ per day, was hard to feed her children and the only alternate to her was to send her son to work in the local Basket waiving industry, where he worked as a helper, without going school. Often he would starve for lack of sufficient food and long hours of work. Once the contractor entrusted several basket to his mother and told her to go to different villages and sell them, so she took her son with her, while she was going to different villages, her son Chiranjivee, held two baskets in his hands and went about street by street to sell them, while doing so he came across one of our Pastor who is supported by Final Frontiers, who was holding evening tuitions for his church members children, Chiranjivee After seeing group of kids studying , stood there without talking to any one nor asking people to buy the baskets, he only stood there staring at the kids, tears rolling down his cheeks, immediately our pastor spoke to him and enquired about his whereabouts, he told him and he is a basket seller along with his mom, the pastor took him into his house fed him and made him rest , meanwhile his mother came in search of her son, the pastor shared the gospel with her, she accepted Jesus as her personal savior and told him about her suffering, the pastor told her to leave her son with him and go on her business. Now Chiranjivee is very happy, learning about Jesus and His love.
