His mother was also a temple prostitute, who was dedicated to the temple at the age of 13 and ever since she has been indulging in this practice but gave up when she heard the gospel, preached to her through one of our church members who was an ex-temple prostitute. Now she came to the Lord and leading a dignified Christian life without ever being tempted to go back. She is working in a farm as a laborer and supporting her family, though the wages are less, she is not grumbling at all. She says that life in Christ gave her great pleasure than her service to the temples, which discarded her saying her body is no longer charming the male devotees of the temple. Now she is happy that the Lord Jesus forgave her sins and saved.

Her only concern is the welfare of her son and longs for TAL program.
