Please write a story about how the child became orphaned or destitute or abandoned. (Make it as detailed as possible and use additional paper if necessary.)

Aishwariya is a lonely child, he spends most of his time in between four walls, while his parents go to work, by evening she expects both parents to come him in time, but seldom her wishes comes true, because the landlord makes her dad work in different farm for 13 to 14 hrs , while her mom is forced to work in two places ie in the morning she works in the house of the farm owner and then goes to work in the farm and again she goes back to work in the house to wash the dishes, wash cloths and return home, on the way she purchases the grains needed for the dinner, while her husband goes elsewhere to buy a bottle of liquor to get intoxicated, thereby he escapes from the domestic responsibility. In the process it is Aishwariya who suffer lonliness and his mom suffer from lack of wages. Since she accepted Jesus as her personal savior and has been the member of the local church, where Aishwariya attends Sunday school and is enjoying the same on Sunday and rest of the days she is lonely, so we are forced to rescue her childhood through TAL.
