Please write a story about how the child became orphaned or destitute or abandoned. (Make it as detailed as possible and use additional paper if necessary.)

This child is born in a Islam family. He has a sister. His father is a Plumber and earns Rs 900/- per week. But doesn't take care of the family. He spends most of the money in drinking and not being supportive to the family and children. Because her father has been addicted to drinking, his mother finds very difficult to run the family. So she decided to go to job and takes care of the family with the less amount of salary she gets. Without the support of his father mother takes the responsibilities of the family. She has to pay the rent and the school fees and also has to manage needs of the house. So she finds it very difficult. But manages to provide one-meal per day to the children.
