This child is from a hindu family background. Father is a painter and earns very less amount every week. But doesn't spend it for family. He is addicted to smoking and drinking. Mother comes to our church and because of her husband's irresponsible attitude towards family, she has to go to work to bring-up her children. The selfish and irresponsible husband doesn't even pay the house-rent and it has been a burden to the mother to even pay the house rent and school fee for the children. Father always quarrels with mother and sometimes gives money to the family. As the mother is coming to our church, she is growing in the Lord and praying for her husband's life-change. But with the less amount of weekly income she is managing the family's and children's expenses with great difficulty.
