This child is from a Christian family. Father is a Pastor. doing ministry and depends upon the Love offerings and mother is a house-wife. They come to our church. Parents find it very difficult to educate the children. They even had stopped their children from attending the school for one year because they were not able to pay the school fees. But his ministry is done by faith without any financial support from relatives and friends. But by the God's Grace they manage to run the family with less amount of Love offerings and manages to fulfill the basic needs of the children. Father has recently started the ministry and working hard in ministry for the advancement of His Kingdom.
