The parents of this child come to our church regularly, with their children. Father is a painter and earns very less amount of income every week. But it seems to be insufficient for him to run the family. Mother is a house-wife and takes care of the children. Even its her responsibility to fulfil the needs of the children. and finds it very difficult to manage the family situation. Father hands over the income to the child's mother and she has to pay the house-rent and school fees for the children. Most of time they were not even able to pay the house-rent and the Land-lord rebuked them for not paying so. They have lot of financial problems.
