This child is from a Christian family. Parents are the active participants in the ministry in our church. They attend our church regularly. Father is a plumber and earns very less amount of income every week and experiences the insufficiency of income. Mother is a house-wife and takes care of the children. But both of the parents find it difficult to manage the family with less amount of income. They have to pay the house-rent and school fees for children and also should take care of the family needs which seems to be impossible for them to fulfill. Even the Land-lord rebuked them for not paying the house-rent in time and asked them to vacate the premises. But somehow manages the family and tries to fulfill the needs of the children.
