This child is from a Christian family. Father is a painter and earns very less amount every week and spends most of the money in smoking and drinking. Because of this bad habit, he doesn't have any permanent job. Where ever he joins as a painter he will work only some days and quit that job for very silly reasons. But mother comes to our church and encourages her children to attend Sunday school and church service. Father doesn't come to church regularly. Due to this, mother as a house-wife finds it very difficult to run the family. She has to pay the house-rent and school fees for the children, which seems to be impossible for her. Even the Land-Lord rebuked her for not paying the house-rent in time and asked them to vacate the premises. In the midst of all such problems, some-how she manages to provide basic needs for the children.
