Shreeshail's parents are contract laborers both of them work for the same landlord, before joining work, his dad signed on a plain sheet, without knowing the amount of money he was given in the form of loan. So after one year the landlord called him and told him that you have borrowed such a large amount which is impossible for you to repay, so I will take you to the court of law if not you and your wife has to work in my farm and be content with whatever wages I pay. So both of them work and at the end of the day one parent wage goes to repayment of the loan, while other parent wage is brought home, with which they have buy groceries.

Unable to cope up with the landlord, both the parents tried to run away but decided to stay back after they were counseled by our Pastor, who is being supported by Final Frontiers. He told the parents that since you have known Christ as your savior it is not good to deceive your master. So they stayed back and are enduring hardship with the hope that one day they will be blessed.

But their children career is in danger unless we rescue through TAL
