Ajit mom and dad are bonded laborer, who work in the farm from dawn to dusk for a wages of 3$ out of which $1.50 goes towards the loan repayment and such they have to meet all the needs with the remaining. The couples have no freedom of choice, only on Sunday they are given around three hours to attend church.

During any sickness in the family, they again borrow loan to meet medical expenses and this only adds to the capital, which means the burden of repayment increases as the days go by. As such there is no relief for the family, in that aspect children become prime target to the money lender, who force the parents to bring their kids to work. with the intention that the second generation should also be bound in poverty and illiteracy.

In such case we need to rescue the lives of children through TAL.
