Please write a story about how the child became orphaned or destitute or abandoned. (Make it as detailed as possible and use additional paper if necessary.)

Akash mother became a Temple prostitute at the of 14, to the goddess Yellamma, she was dedicated so as to ward off sickness and poverty in the family. (It is the belief among the poor of the poorest community, that Yellamma will bless them in return for dedication) So she was helpless and served the goddess and temple by fulfilling desires of all the male devotees who visit the temple.

And after 15 years of service, she lost all her physical vitality and was rejected by the devotees, became a non-entity and had to survive on the streets by begging and entertaining any low income customers, as such her son and other siblings had to live on the streets. By God grace gospel was preached to her, she wept when she came to know that the Lord Jesus Christ came down to this earth so that we may have life eternal. She gave her heart to Christ confessing her sins and feeling remorse for the cruelty done to her by her parents. She is now completely transformed and leading a Christian life.
